

Russia-Ukraine war: Daily Update Report (July 24, 2024)

Introduction

The conflict between Russia and Ukraine still continues with significant developments on July 24, 2024. This conflict is going on past 882 days and there are developments on different aspects.

Key developments

Russia reconvenes UN security council meeting

Russia has reconvened the UN security council to condemn the foreign aid to Ukraine. Pro-Russian former Austrian foreign minister Karin Kneissl is expected to speak. Ukrainian representatives enlighten that there is military aid to Russia also from Iran and North Korea.

Visit of Lithuanian prime minister to Ukrainian children

Prime minister Ingrida Šimonytė visited the summer camp in Palanga for children affected by the war in Ukraine. Children of age 7 to 17 are there in camp for their peaceful retreat in summer, the camp is funded by Palnaga municipality and the Lithuanian red cross.

Ukraine's attack on Russian port

A Ukrainian drone attacked a ferry on Russian port Kavkaz. This attack led to death of one and injuries to several, and also caused fire at the port

Russian military advancement

Russia claims to have control over a small village of Ivano-Dariivka in Ukraine's eastern Donetsk region. Location is 30km northeast of Bakhmut. Additionally, there was Russian attack to critical energy infrastructure in Sumy region, cutting power to 50,000 customers.

Ukraine's commander in chief on war

Col Gen Oleksandr Syrskyi, Ukraine's new commander-in-chief, discussed the challenges of facing such a large army of Russia soldiers. Despite recent setbacks for Ukraine, he showed confidence in his nation's army and says to have ability to counter Russian advances with strategic planning and with the use of some advance technologies like drones and robotic ground systems.

Investigation on war crimes

There are impacts of this war on civilians that are critical to any nation, and Ukrainian police are investigating the war crimes committed by Russian forces during the occupation of Kherson, seeking witnesses to murder to local resident on October 17, 2022.

Conclusion

July 24, 2024, marks another significant day in the Ukraine-Russia conflict, highlighted by Ukraine's diplomatic outreach to China, continued military operations, and evolving international responses. As the war enters its 882nd day, diplomatic efforts, military strategies, and economic measures continue to shape the course of this prolonged conflict.

Citations:

Ukrinform. " Lithuanian Prime Minister visits summer camp in Palanga where children from Ukraine vacationing" July 24, 2024.

Ukrinform. " Lithuanian Prime Minister visits summer camp in Palanga where children from Ukraine vacationing" July 24, 2024.

Ukrinform. " During occupation of Kherson, Russians shot man on street, police are looking for witnesses" July 24, 2024.

BBC. " Ukrainian attack on ferry kills one in Russian port" July 24, 2024.

Aljazeera. " Russia-Ukraine war: List of key events, day 880" July 24, 2024.

The Guardian. " ‘I know we will win – and how’: Ukraine’s top general on turning the tables against Russia" July 24, 2024.

The Guardian. " The Guardian. " ‘I know we will win – and how’: Ukraine’s top general on turning the tables against Russia" July 24, 2024.

" July 24, 2024.

Some AI 😊